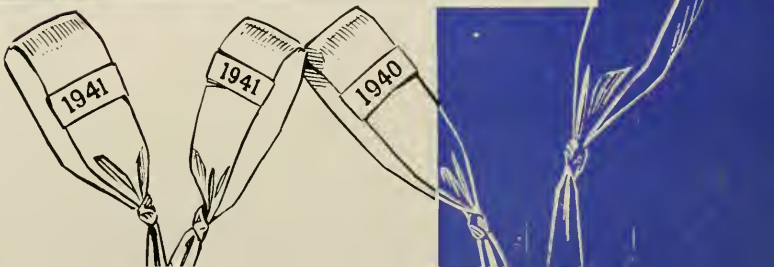
DEDICATION

SINCE we are presenting to you your "favorites" around the college, we find a particular pleasure in dedicating the 1939 Bluestocking to one who is a favorite in these nooks and corners.

To Miss Mildred Ellen Taylor, a distinct personality, teacher and friend, we wish to show our appreciation of her friendly companionship, able direction, and kind understanding.



F

Containing the College, Classes,

OREWORD

IN presenting this book to the class of 1939, we have endeavored to leave with you just a few memories of personal spots around the campus. However, not just memories, but a poignant reality that will be passed on, growing more beautiful with the years.

Those spots which might easily be forgotten among so large a scope, but that have added so much to the charm of your life here.

We give you, your own "Favorite Nooks and Corners."

ALMA MATER

Thou wast born of dreams, Mary Baldwin, Mary Baldwin,
Woman's dreams of love and true desire;
Conqueror's dreams with passion's ardor glowing,
Caught from Truth's undying, pure white fire.
Born to live, to perish never,
To inspire to high endeavor,
To uphold that light forever,
Mary Baldwin.

Thou wast built of dreams, Mary Baldwin, Mary Baldwin,
Dreams of faith, the dreams of early dawn,
Thou shalt live beyond time's farthest limit;
Dreams shall last when walls of stone are gone,
Born to live, to perish never,
To inspire to high endeavor,
To uphold that light forever,
Mary Baldwin.

THE COLLEGE

ADMINISTRATION—

Stately columns giving atmosphere of dignity and charm with Ham and Jam keeping watchful vigil over all. The very essence of hospitality.

CHAPEL—

In these halls we welcome quiet meditation, an urge to higher ambitions, and fulfillment in a daily period of reverence.

ENTRANCE—

On to the campus of undying beauty we climb these steps . . . going further into the college's unique and familiar atmosphere.

PRESIDENT'S HOME—

Here we seek out congeniality in a real home. Receptions, teas, and musicales give a true taste of culture and charm.

HILL TOP—

The quiet serenity of architectural splendor so like the old south, and enriched with traditions that will never die.

McCLUNG—

Old "brick house" that knew the thrill of war days and holds spiritual qualities that last "not for time, but for eternity."

MEMORIAL—

Awe inspiring graciousness of a home —in which friendships are formed and life takes on a fuller meaning.

CAMPUS SCENES—

Little House, a senior's goal . . . Sky High looks out on a snowy morning . . . The club house becomes a part of us . . . January outside and May inside . . . "The Pillars of Wisdom" upholding the Administration building . . . The homelike atmosphere of Martha Riddle serene in the white winter . . . Music building with its queer and beautiful echoes . . . Out of this gate to a richer, fuller day . . . Where knowledge is acquired and culture sought . . .From building to building, rain or shine.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

We arrived at school this fall with enthusiasm and anticipation of greater things to come, for, at last, we were Upperclassmen. We had long looked forward to this day, and it was with deep regret that we thought of those classmates who had not returned.

Remembering our First Year, we endeavored to help the Freshmen, our Sister Class, become acquainted with college life in all its phases. Our first Class entertainment was the tea which we gave in honor of the Freshmen.

In November, we displayed our class rings with a pride which came only with the realization that we, too, were now, truly a part of the ideals and traditions of Mary Baldwin.

Our class was well represented at the BLUESTOCKING Carnival and everyone will long remember Academic Room 3 transformed into a colorful International Casino.

After our return from the Christmas Holidays, which were as exciting and as wonderful as usual, we took our semester examinations with less "cramming" and greater serenity than in previous years.

The Freshmen gave a delightful banquet in our honor on St. Valentine's Day, at the Stonewall Jackson Hotel. We, in turn, entertained the Seniors with a banquet in May, at which time the 1939 BLUESTOCKING was presented.

In the spring, such lovely weather called for a celebration, and the Junior Class had a very exclusive and hilarious picnic with an abundance of food and fun for all.

Then came the Senior Class Day and many of us were attendants. And then, Commencement, and we proudly moved our tassels to the honored position of that of a full-fledged Senior, thereby assuming added importance and dignity.

We bid the Seniors farewell with mixed emotions—proud of our attainment, but sad at the thought of parting, and with the deep determination in our hearts that our class, the Class of '40, would carry on the Senior traditions and ideals.

Taken at random—Talent personified—With the background of a queen—Mrs. Grafton and class of '52—Miss Mims and not a book in sight—Dr. Jarman in the middle, middle of what?—"Filthy-dimples" Buckley—"Take a letter"—"Peep-eye"—breathing in spring—Bessie getting that coat of bronze—"Keep your mind on the game, youse guys."—Quintuplets! now you know better—"Catch him, Mag"—"Spirit of '76"—Songbirds of the south—Mildred and Millicent under the limelight—coming down by degrees.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

In the summer as we prepared to return for our second year at Mary Baldwin, there were three things to which we especially looked forward: being with old friends again, going to the club at 9:30 instead of at 10, and having the upper hand on "Freshman Day." The first two were better than we had dared hope, but the last was about as miserable for the givers as for the takers.

Thumbing through a scrapbook in search of memories, there are reminders of: the Athletic Association picnic for which we concocted an old fashioned "dramy"; the cooking ability which we displayed at the BLUESTOCKING carnival; our unbounded joy at one of us having the lead in both "Seven Sisters" and "First Lady"; and the fun our privileged few had Christmas caroling.

Although we didn't admit it, we were really quite glad to be back after a grand time during the holidays—even in spite of the foreboding and omnipresent idea of exams. After this ordeal was over, no one knew where the time went. There was Dr. Watters' lovely tea for us and the successful Sophomore-Senior banquet followed. Spring vacation came and went, with Class-day and May-day too close on its heels for anyone's comfort.

These memories were freely seasoned with bull sessions, Sundays at the club, week-end jaunts to neighboring universities and cities, studying not any too hard, and founding true friendships which will never die. Perhaps the only mar to an otherwise perfect year was the farewells, some of which may prove to be goodbyes forever.

To the president of our class and to our sponsor, who have inspired us to new heights, we pay our never-ending tribute.

Dr. Taylor smiles on any old problem—"Prexy"—Frosh, walking around looking pretty—Riding-picnic enthusiasts—Such domesticity—Some outdoor girls—Talking over graduation prospects—"It's a hard life."—Right in the middle of a Deutsch exam—They put up a good front, Patty—Landes in an off-moment—Barbara and "Fannie-horse"—The Spanish side of the carnival—"Now did I do the right thing?"—Louise, the old smoothie.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

On September fifteenth about one hundred and thirty excited girls crossed the threshold of Mary Baldwin College. Each of the girls was starting a new phase of her life which she looked at with eyes of wonder.

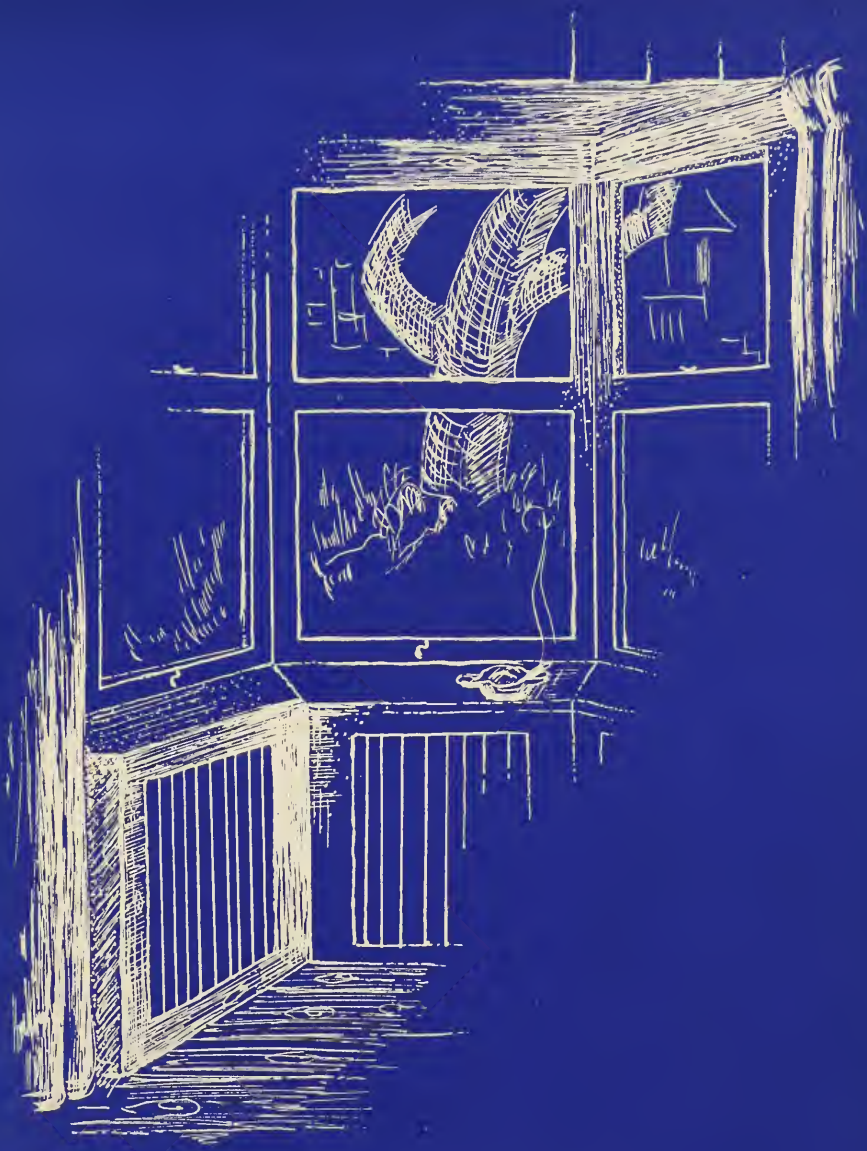
The first few days were filled to the brim with getting acquainted, taking placement examinations, which showed as result a joyous vacation from school work, conferences with Mrs. Grafton, schedules and attending handbook classes. So many activities filled our hours that there was very little time for getting homesick. About the second week each girl set to work to make her room as attractive as possible, and completely acclimated herself.

Deep in the memories of our freshmen year will be embeded the thoughts of really "getting to know" life at Mary Baldwin with the reception at Dr. Jarman's home and the Junior tea, horrors of "rat court," and life impressions which the Candle Light Service made. Each member of the class of '42 will remember Mardi Gras and Carnival nights as outstanding feats.

The freshmen swam the sea of examinations with no serious calamities. Free week-end which followed exams was spent in catching up on sleep and good times.

St. Valentine's day was marked by many corsages and fun had at the Freshman-Junior Banquet. The spring house-party was a gallant success and made us proud to show off what was ours here at school.

It is with regret that our Freshmen year comes to an end, but we can see nothing but happiness ahead at Mary Baldwin.



ACTIVITIES

SHIRLEY BLACK
PRESIDENT OF THE STUDENT COUNCIL

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

We live at Mary Baldwin as one congenial group, taking a great pride in the spirit of unity that prevails. It is due to the fact that we have a Student Government Association that our life here is so successful and happy, because we feel that such a life is based on personal honor and cooperation; and it is on these principles that the association has been built.

The purpose of Student Government has a far greater aim than to control discipline and regulations. Its most fundamental objective is concerned with the growth of students. It endeavors to help each girl develop a greater strength of character, nobler ideals, and a higher Christian living.

The honor system on which our association is based applies to every phase and department of college life. It helps to create an attitude of trust, thereby increasing the spirit of cooperation that is so vitally important to community living.

Each student is a member of the Student Government Association and therefore, shares in the rights and responsibilities of self-government. Through this membership the foundations of fine scholarship and high living that were laid by Miss Mary Julia Baldwin seventy-six years ago have developed into the "Mary Baldwin Spirit" of love, loyalty, and fellowship that lives today and will live forever.

It is the desire of the Student Government Association that each girl's progress will be continually onward and upward—always "to inspire to high endeavor."

PRESIDENT OF THE Y. W. C. A.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

The Y. W. C. A. strives to help each girl find real happiness in her college life. Our program has been a four-fold one: mental, physical, spiritual and social, with the purpose of developing each of these phases of character which we feel makes for a well rounded personality.

It is our desire to make close friendships with all girls so that they may turn to us in time of need. Since the spirit of the Y. is love and service, we deem it a great privilege to aid each girl in developing greater strength of character, nobler ideals, and a deeper faith in Christ.

ART CLUB

OFFICERS

Kathleen Daily ..... President

Joyce Albright ..... Secretary-Treasurer

The Mary Baldwin Art Club, a part of the Three Arts Club, is an outstanding organization in the college.

Its purpose is to instil in each student an understanding and appreciation of beauty, and a wish to gain a broader outlook on the general field of art.

The Club is composed of art students, as well as those students who are interested in art appreciation.

Our main project for the past two years has been to further this understanding of art by placing reproductions of famous paintings in each dormitory room. This year we have been unusually successful in developing a circulating gallery.

Outside speakers as well as members of the club and faculty have contributed to the discussions held throughout the year.

The outstanding activity of the Dramatic Club is the production of the fall and spring plays. Durind this year, Seven Sisters, a Hungarian farce, and First Lady, a modern comedy, were presented.

The purpose of the club is to afford the student training in the principles of drama and the art of presenting dramatic literature.

Club programs consist of skits, pantomines, monologues, and other forms of interpretation; members of the club, as well as students of speech, take part. Membership is open to all students who are interested in any phase of the drama.

The Glee Club is organized for the girls who are especially interested in music. Members are not required to take piano or voice, but they must have a knowledge of the rudiments of music and a natural ear for it. The Club meets twice a week under the direction of Mr. Carl Broman, head of the Music Department.

It is the desire of the Glee Club to bring good music to the public and to put worthwhile music within the reach of every Mary Baldwin girl. We also have as our aim the arousing of a genuine appreciation on the campus and elsewhere of this phase of culture.

Every year several concerts are given both at the college and outside the campus. It is our plan to give yearly joint concerts with nearby college Glee Clubs and frequently the Mary Baldwin Glee Club joins with other choruses for programs.

The Little Sisters' and the Granddaughters' Clubs joined this year to form one. Those girls are eligible for membership who have had mothers, grandmothers or sisters to attend Mary Baldwin in years previous.

The purpose of the Club is to form a closer bond of friendship among those whose past is joined by a common interest. Each girl feels she is the representative of someone and does her best to uphold the traditions and ideals of the College.

Each year on October 4th, Miss Baldwin's birthday, the members of the club are special guests of the Alumnæ Association.

An outstanding event this year was the occasion of a tea given by Miss Nancy McFarland on the 17th of January, at which the Club was most delightfully entertained.

THE ALGERNON SYDNEY SULLIVAN AWARD

The New York Southern Society, in order to perpetuate the memory of Algernon Sydney Sullivan (through whose efforts the Society was founded), in such a form that shall be most expressive of his character, established an award to be made in certain Southern colleges, to one member of the graduating class of each institution selected. Each school may present this award to another person, not a member of the student body, in whom accomplishment and service are outstanding, and who shall have some interest in, association with, or relation to said institution. At the 1938 Commencement, Mary Baldwin College presented the awards to: Jean Diescher, '38, Pittsburgh, Pa., President of the Student Body; Misses Nancy and Abbie McFarland, of the College faculty.

THE QUARLES AWARD

Mary Jane Cooke

The Lois Walker Quarles medal, established in 1931 in memory of a Mary Baldwin alumna, is awarded to that student who meets the following qualifications: She must be a member of the Junior or Senior class; must have completed a minimum of the full year course each year for a consecutive period of three years in instrumental music or voice, and have made at least two class athletic teams. The Bluestocking, the annual publication of Mary Baldwin College, is edited by the Junior class.

Each member of the editorial and business staff, working in close cooperation with our able sponsor and friend, Miss Fannie Strauss, hopes to present to the Senior class a radiant last look at their college days. We strive, in some small way, to add some part to their scope of memories here.

The Editor-in-Chief and Business Manager are elected by the Student Body and the staff is carefully chosen to aid in the success and influence of this annual.

CAMPUS COMMENTS

Campus Comments, the student newspaper, is published weekly. It has tried to make use of the many helpful suggestions from the student body, and has seen the addition of many new features. Among these have been the "open letter to the editor," and the frequent use of informal sports and beauty cuts.

In November, Frances Rue, editor, and Peggy Herscher, managing editor, attended the Associated Collegiate Press Convention in Cincinnati. They brought back many new ideas tending towards "stream-lining" the paper.

An especial attempt has been made this year to deal with all college groups and activities impartially and to represent a cross section of the daily life at college.

Campus Comments endeavors to broaden and at the same time to integrate student thought as well as to uphold and enrich the standards of Mary Baldwin College.

MISCELLANY

The Miscellany is the literary magazine of Mary Baldwin. It is published four times a year, the June issue being the work of the incoming editor, under the guiding hand of the outgoing one.

The Miscellany's purpose is to encourage the creation and appreciation of literature and to maintain a high literary standard. Compositions include those from both faculty and student body.

The Editor-in-Chief and the Business Manager of this publication are elected by vote of the student body; and they, with the advice of their predecessors and the two faculty sponsors, Miss Mims and Dr. Vandiver, appoint the remainder of the staff members.

For several successive years The Miscellany has been awarded an All-American Honor Rating. This must be considered a tribute not to the editors, but to all the contributors.

ATHLETICS

JANE NEAL HERNDON
PRESIDENT OF ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Every member of the student-body is a member of the Athletic Association.

The heads of the various sports make up the Athletic Council and with the assistance of the director of the department of physical education, help to carry out the Athletic program for the year. Interest in athletics begins in the physical education classes and the Athletic Council tries to encourage students to participate in the various activities of the Athletic program.

Athletic ability is not the important part of the A. A., rather it tries to emphasize wholesome recreation, fair play, and sportsmanship.

The association tries to combine athletics with social activities through intramural sports, picnics, skating parties, and various other parties and programs.

HOCKEY

Of the numerous fall sports at Mary Baldwin, hockey seems to be the most popular. Enthusiasm is shown by inexperienced Freshmen as well as by the seasoned Upperclassmen. Many of the players were fortunate this year in receiving instruction from Miss Appleby of England, who introduced hockey into this country.

The Senior retained the championship by skillful playing and good team work, although they met stiff competition in the other class teams.

From these class teams were chosen eleven representatives to the Hockey Convention in Fredericksburg.

VARSITY HOCKEY

The Varsity team in hockey is chosen by the hockey sports leader and the class captains, with the assistance of Miss Powell. As hockey is a new sport to most of the freshmen, the team is largely made up of the more experienced upperclassmen. Improvement in playing may well be noticed from year to year, and players learn the value of good teamwork.

To those who make the Varsity, letters are awarded at the Athletic Banquet which takes place in May.

MARY BALDWIN COLLEGE · NON PRO TEMPORE SED AETERNITATE ·

BASKETBALL

No sooner is the Christmas vacation over than the cry is "come out for basketball." The students turn out in large numbers and before long the teams become well organized and show technique developed by frequent practicing. Class spirit is strong and those who do not play come out to support their class teams by cheering.

The highlight of the season is the Faculty-Senior game, which is one of the most colorful and hilarious affairs of the year.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

In basketball, as in hockey, the Varsity is chosen by the sports leader and the class captains, and members of this team are also awarded letters at the Athletic banquet.

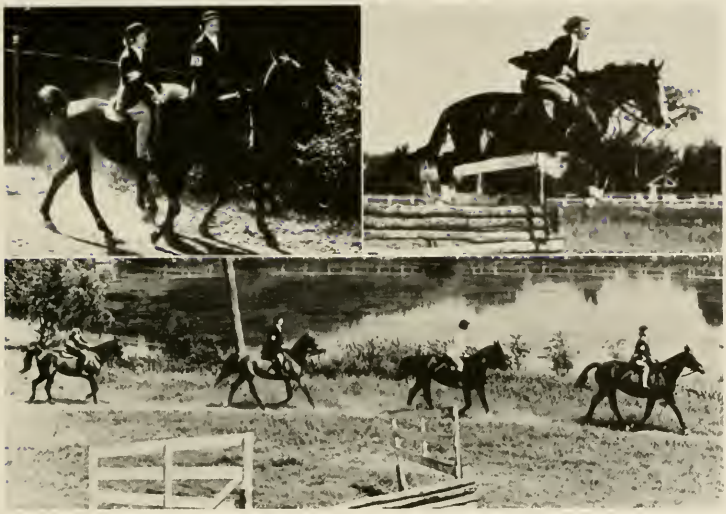
The team is made up of the most representative players in this sport, and the members are chosen according to their skill and ability, their knowledge of the game, and the interest shown during the season.

MARY BALDWIN COLLEGE · NON PROTEMPORE SED AETERNITATE ·

BASEBALL

The Faculty-Student baseball game is an outstanding feature of the Athletic Picnic which takes place at Crafton Park early in the school year. This game gives the fielders an opportunity to demonstrate their skill, as the faculty usually send their balls whistling off into space.

In the spring, practice starts in earnest. The intramural games are played in May, and are attended by students and faculty, many of whom hike to the Athletic Field for the occasion. As in hockey and basketball, a varsity team is chosen from the members of the class teams.



HORSE SHOW

The most important event sponsored by the Riding Club is the annual Horse Show held each Spring during the week-end of the Mary Baldwin Houseparty.

This show is a demonstration of riding ability by the members of the club. The riders are placed in the beginners, intermediate, or advanced class, according to their horsemanship. There are events which are judged according to general form, handiness in controlling the horse, jumping ability, pair riding, and other qualities of a good rider.

Appropriate ribbons are presented to three persons in each class winning first, second, and third places. The grand finale of the show is brought about when the best-all-around rider is presented with a cup.

The Monogram Club is an honorary organization. To be eligible for membership a girl must have received six hundred and fifty points by participating in the athletic program of the college.

The Monograms are awarded at the Athletic Banquet in May, after which those who have received the emblem are permanent members of the club.

A girl who wins an additional six hundred and fifty points is awarded a white star. The third set of points merits a yellow star, and the fourth, a white star rimmed with yellow.

The Riding Club sponsors three important events in the year, namely: the Picnic, the Horse-Show, and the Riding Club Banquet. A cup is presented to the girl who is chosen the best all around rider in the Horse Show.

As Mary Baldwin approaches the milestone of a Centennial Celebration, it is appropriate that her daughters should look back with her over the years and months and days of the century since 1842, a century crowded with purposeful living. An institution can look back only through the eyes of one who will read the record she has left in catalogues, magazines and newspapers, pictures, keepsakes and other mementos cherished by school girls over the period of a hundred years.

The privilege of reading the records of Mary Baldwin's past and interpreting them for the present and future was enjoyed this year by Elizabeth Pfohl Campbell, former dean of Mary Baldwin College.

The Centennial Program begins with a backward look. But it has only its beginning in the past. We look backward that we may be encouraged to look forward, that, inspired by the accomplishments of Mary Baldwin's first century we may make provision for her second. Thus loyal daughters of Mary Baldwin will band together to insure for her the immortality of which they sing:

"Born to live, to perish never,
To inspire to high endeavor,
To uphold that light forever,
Mary Baldwin."
